FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21.

For "Stock Items," etc., see Court of Claims, Boyle Co., etc., see second page.

A black cross X after your name on margin of your paper, signifies that time for which you subscriber, has expired, and that you are required to renew your subscription. A red cross indicates that your subscription remains unpaid, and you are notified to pay it.

TO-DAY'S ITEMS.

Another invoice of hats at Hayden's.

Examine Hayden's new stock of boots and shoes.

The best Tobacco and Cigars the in City at the Postoffice.

Geo. D. Warren pays the highest market price for beef hides, etc.

Carson & Bodil's have reopened their confectionery and oyster saloon.

Customers at R. E. Cross & Co.'s buy goods as they are taken from the boxes.

Hayden duplicates Louisville and Cincinnati bills for full sets of furniture, and sells single pieces at grocery profits.

The stock of 2000s received daily by R. E. Cross & Co. are enormous large, and their sales correspondingly large.

If you want a policy on your life in a Company in a thoroughly sound condition, and well worthy of your patronage, insure in the Southern Mutual.

When you visit Louisville stop at the Rufus Hotel, Fifth street, between Main and Market, and our word for it, you will make that your headquarters when in the city.

The promptness of the Southern Mutual Life in the payment of her losses will be noticed by the receipt of the payment of a policy on Dr. George McRoberts, deceased.

Those who visit Louisville and wish to partake of pure liquors, wines, or beer, will never fail to find it at Henry Young's Saloon, 98 Third street, between Market and Jefferson.

Remember the sale of the personal property of Rev. Geo. O. Barnes, to-morrow (Saturday). Among the numerous articles to be sold are several valuable milch cows, a number of stands of bees, a gold watch, silver watch, rockaway, etc.

Hayden's trade is increasing every day, and why not? He is a fixed feature in the commercial aspect of Stanford, liberal in his dealings with all men, able and willing to extend every necessary accommodation to his customers, and keeps a stock inferior in no respect, to any retail establishment in Kentucky.

I would respectfully announce to my old friends and customers that we have procured one of Hall's Patent Fire and Burglar Proof Safes, and can now assure them that all work left with me will be perfectly safe from fire or burglars. Asking a continuance of your patronage, I am, Respectfully,

T. RICHARDS.

We wish to make special mention of the Steam Boiler Manufacturing establishment of Robert W. Ramsey, of Louisville, Ky. This establishment is one of the oldest and most popular in the city, and the reputation of Mr. R. for making steamboat, mill, portable and upright boilers of every description, out of the best material and of the best workmanship, stands at the head of the list. He also makes it a specialty to repair boilers upon the shortest notice. The mill-men and machinists in this section will please be sure to take his address, and by dealing with him they will serve their own interests as well as oblige the JOURNAL.

MARRIED.

On Thursday the 23d inst., in Louisville, Mr. HENRY G. SANDERS, Assistant Cashier of Central National Bank, Danville, to Miss IDA SHREVE.

DEATHS.

At his residence, in Lincoln county, on Wednesday morning, October 29, after an illness of one week, Mr. Walter R. Buchanan, a prominent and respected citizen of the West end of our county.

At Oscoda, Mo., on the morning of the 21st of October, of typhoid fever, NAPOLYON B. WRIGHT, aged 23 years, 1 month and 22 days. The deceased was a son of Judge Thos. H. Wright, formerly a citizen of our county.

NEW COMERS.

Two new appeared in Paris on the 26th inst. Tim Higgins and Ed Edmonson, circus.

In Marion county, on the 13th, to the wife of Jas. A. Richards, a son. On the 22d, a 94 pound boy registered at Joseph Ford's.

A few days ago, to the better-half of Mr. J. R. Dodd, of Shelby City, a ten-pound boy. Tell him to draw an office for his first pair of red-top boots.

Mrs. Jas. P. Good, of Casey county, recently gave birth to her fourteenth child, and the M. D.'s still count her as one of their most profitable patrons. Old man, go West.

From the land of gold, grizzles and invalids, lovely California, comes the announcement of the appearance, on the 12th inst., of a twelve pound squallor, who is at present boarding in the family of our former countryman, J. H. Fish. Success to the parents and little Fish.

The postmaster at Lancaster, Wm. Hedger, handles his mail bags well, and will hereafter rise with the sun and attend the mail on Sunday's especially. Verily, his liberties are Hedged, his arms doubled, his schools changed, his deportments played out and his hair in demand. But there's music in the "critter."

The Inhuman delinquent.

Point out to us a man who will not admit that times are hard; then show us a descendant of Adam who will not frankly admit that a cogent reason why the printer should be paid. Prudent men don't like to take too much stock in a publisher of a newspaper—especially a country newspaper—and why? Because his delinquent subscribers are so numerous, that he cannot, oftentimes, meet his obligations promptly. All the woes and pains of a poor country editor are traceable directly to the inhuman delinquent. We are angry with every mother's son of them, and deliberately express our opinion that they are scoundrels that should be shamed, enlightened, "cussed," and sent to bed. We have about six hundred readers who are walking around with two dollars in their pockets which rightfully belong to us. This is wrong, and we are not able to stand it. Delinquents, we again urge you to "stand" this sheet like you would a red-hot potato, and go instantly to one of our agents and place yourself right upon the JOURNAL's books, or remit your dues directly to our office. If you can't spare two dollars, one, and our glorious, resolute, vaporous transliterations will be unbound. Do it.

The Times is the best weekly paper in the state, and is a good one.
